IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Personal Information Privacy Protection Notice

At Union Federal, protecting the privacy and confidentiality of your personal information is important. We place great value in your business and the trust you place in Union Federal. In order to maintain the level of service and quality financial products that you desire, we collect, maintain, and use nonpublic personal information about you on a routine basis. To help you better understand the means Union Federal goes to in protecting your personal information, we are providing you with the following privacy statement.

We do not share information about our current or former customers with others, except to conduct our business, comply with applicable law, and protect against fraud. Union Federal complies with all federal laws except where state laws prevail.

We may collect information volunteered by you during the application process, gathered from your transactions and experiences with us, and obtained from other authorized sources, such as credit bureaus. All information collected and stored by Union Federal is used for specific business purposes, such as administering your account, complying with state/federal banking regulations, protecting against fraud, and developing a better understanding of your financial needs to provide you with improved products and services.

We understand that the protection of your personal and account information is of the utmost importance. Union Federal restricts access to your personal and account information to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to guard your nonpublic personal information.

If you have any further questions, or would like a written copy of Union Federal's privacy policy, please stop in to your nearest Union Federal office.
