Revised 12/1/16

NOW ACCOUNT-DEMAND ACCOUNT RULES AND REGULATIONS

All depositors establishing savings accounts entitling them to make withdrawals by Negotiable Orders of Withdrawal, which for convenience are hereafter called Now Accounts, agree to abide by the regulations stated below, which are applicable to such Now Accounts:

All depositors establishing savings accounts known as a Demand Deposit Account, which is a non-interest bearing account, entitling them to make a withdrawal by check or to withdraw or transfer on a negotiable or transferable order to the Association, agree to abide by the regulations stated below, which are applicable to such Demand Accounts:

1. All items cashed or deposited will be handled by the Institution as agent for the depositor(s) subject to charge back or refund if for any reason final payment is not received in a form acceptable to the Institution. If claim is made with respect to any item subsequent to final payment on the grounds that such item was altered or bore a forged or unauthorized endorsement or was otherwise not properly payable, the Institution may withhold the amount thereof from the account until final determination of such claim. The use of negotiable orders of withdrawal with this kind of account is governed by the rules and regulations hereinafter set forth, which rules and regulations may, from time to time, be amended.

2. This NOW ACCOUNT/DEMAND ACCOUNT, whether it be in an individual or in joint names, is for the use of the depositor(s) only.

3. The depositor(s) agree to use the forms approved by the Institution. The Institution reserves the right to return unpaid any other form of order of any order incompletely or defectively drawn.

4. The depositor(s) are subject to certain charges in connection with the NOW ACCOUNT/DEMAND ACCOUNT. A schedule of such charges shall be supplied to the depositor(s) by the Institution when the account is opened. Such charges may be changed from time to time by the Institution, which agrees to supply the depositor(s) with a revised schedule of charges if any change is made.

5. Statements reflecting account activity, charges associated therewith, and the balance in the account shall be rendered to the depositor(s) at least on a quarterly basis at the Institution's convenience.

6. At the risk and written request of the depositor(s) the Institution will, without responsibility on its part so far as it may lawfully limit its liability, accept a stop-payment order on a NOW ACCOUNT/DEMAND ACCOUNT. The Institution will charge the depositor(s) in connection with such stop-payment orders in accordance with its current schedule of charges.

7. All deposits are received and credited by the Institution subject to final collection. Collected funds to cover orders drawn must be on deposit the day before an order is presented for payment, or payment may be refused and a charge applied.

8. The Institution reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to refuse NOW ACCOUNTS/DEMAND ACCOUNTS or further deposits in any existing NOW ACCOUNT/DEMAND ACCOUNT. The Institution also reserves the right, at its sole discretion to discontinue or limit the practice of allowing withdrawals by negotiable order of withdrawal, and to terminate the deposit relationship at any time upon notice to the depositor(s).

9. The Institution may give notice to any depositor requiring such depositor to withdraw the entire amount of deposit in any NOW ACCOUNT/DEMAND ACCOUNT, or any part thereof. Such notice shall also advise the depositor that the Institution reserves the right after date specified in said notice not to make payment on any draft drawn on such account. After the date so specified, the Institution shall not be obliged to make any payment from such account except for the purpose of closing such account.

10. Deposits in NOW ACCOUNTS/DEMAND ACCOUNTS may be withdrawn at any time, provided however, that the Board of Directors or authorized officers of the Institution may at any time require a depositor to give written notice of his intention to withdraw by the use of a NOW ACCOUNT/DEMAND ACCOUNT the whole or any part of his deposit. The Institution shall then pay all withdrawals requested in accordance with such methods and procedures as to amounts and allotments of funds for such purposes as shall be provided by the regulations of the supervisory authority as named in the NOW ACCOUNT/DEMAND ACCOUNT summary, and as provided by other applicable law, rules and regulations in effect at the date of the request for withdrawal.

11. The depositor(s) will maintain at all times a minimum balance in the accounts as stated in the NOW ACCOUNT/DEMAND ACCOUNT summary. Any orders drawn on an account reducing the balance below this minimum will be returned unpaid and appropriate charges levied.

12. Rules and regulations governing the use of NOW ACCOUNTS/DEMAND ACCOUNTS may be revised or amended by the Institution at any time, and the Institution shall give notice of such changes either by (1) posting the same in a conspicuous place in the lobby of the Institution and in other offices it may maintain, or (2) sending written notice thereof to all accountholders at the most recent address indicated on the Institution's records.

13. The execution of a signature card by the depositor(s) upon the opening of this account shall constitute an agreement by the depositor(s) to the bylaws of the Institution and to all of the above regulations as are now in effect or hereafter amended.

14. Earnings on deposits in this account are compounded and distributed at such rates and times as are fixed by the Board of Directors as stated in the NOW ACCOUNT/DEMAND ACCOUNT summary.
